

Jonathan Dickinson

Email: clerk@stjohnsbuildings.co.uk

Phone: 0161 214 1500

Year of Call: 1986

Jonathan read law at Bristol University and was called to the Bar by the Inner Temple in 1986. He is a well respected and highly experienced criminal barrister working in all areas of criminal law and related fields. Jonathan is a CPS Grade 4 prosecutor.

Memberships

- Criminal Bar Association

EXPERTISE

Crime

Jonathan is regularly instructed in the following areas: Rape and serious sexual violence, serious violence and large scale public disorder cases.

He has also been involved in major drugs conspiracies, fraud, money laundering and other dishonesty cases. He is experienced in Proceeds of Crime Act proceedings.

He appears frequently for both defence and prosecution in cases of serious child sexual exploitation and familial sexual abuse.

Also:

- Multi Defendant and Complainant cases of sexual abuse
- Cases involving cross gender defendants
- Cases involving 'false memory syndrome' and cases involving complainants with severe mental health problems.

He has a particular interest in wildlife offences.

He advises on and has appeared for claimants in civil jury trials relating to complaints against the police.

Cases

R v Monteiro: A multi handed 'torture' case within the small Bolton Portuguese community.

R v Shamin Akhtar and four others: A kidnapping 'Honour crime'. Subject of a BBC documentary – an extremely sensitive case – indictment included poisoning allegations.

R v H: First prosecution in Cumbria under the controversial hunting legislation.