

MEDICO-LEGAL CONFERENCE
Friday 26 May 2017

DUPUYTREN'S DISEASE IN THE WORKPLACE:
IS IT COMPENSATABLE?

A joint venture between Wrightington Hospital and St John's Buildings Barrister Chambers

VENUE: Manchester Art Gallery, Mosley Street, Manchester, M2 3JL

CPD: 3.5

Provisional Programme

| | | |
|----------------------|--|---|
| 9.30 | Registration | |
| 10:00 | Introduction | Chair, Professor Ian Trail Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon |
| 10:15 – 10:45 | Medical literature and clinical experience against a link with work activity | Mr Mike Hayton Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon |
| 10:45 – 11:15 | Medical literature and clinical experience in favour of a link with work activity | Mr Sumedh Talwalker Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon |
| 11:15 – 11:35 | Tea/coffee break | |
| 11:35 – 12:00 | Medical/Legal Debate - For v Against a link with work activities | Hayton/Trail/Talwalker/others |
| 12:00 – 12:30 | A Claimant's solicitor's view | Karen Jackson CEO of Roberts Jackson Solicitors |
| 12:30 – 13:30 | Lunch | |
| 13:30 – 14:00 | The role of the Legal team, Solicitor and Barrister, and the financial constraints | Lesley Graves CEO of Citadel Law and John Dunn, Consultant with Citadel Law |
| 14:00 – 15:00 | Legal Principles to be applied. With contributions from Amrit Singh Atwal (pupil barrister to Philip Grundy) and Mathew Smith (para legal to Philip Grundy) | Philip M D Grundy Barrister at St John's Buildings |
| 15:00 – 15:30 | Questions and Answer Session. Including a short Legal Debate on the link with work activities | |
| 15:30 | Concluding remarks | |
| 15:45 | Finish | |

Cost £135.00 per delegate /£440.00 per 4 delegate/group bookings: booking form attached

Sponsorship packages available, please contact us for more information