

Laura Halsall

Pupil Barrister

Email: clerk@stjohnsbldings.co.uk

Phone: 0151 243 6000

Year of Call: 2017

Laura joined St John's Buildings as a pupil in October 2019 under the supervision of David Flood.

She is a civil pupil, with focus on employment law as well as personal injury and clinical negligence.

Prior to the Bar, Laura worked for a multinational business support company regularly representing Respondents at Employment Tribunals across the United Kingdom. She successfully conducted tribunal hearings in numerous areas including whistleblowing, unfair dismissal and discrimination.

Laura read Theology at the University of Oxford before completing the Graduate Diploma in Law at City University London in 2016.

She completed the Bar Professional Training Course in Manchester in 2017, achieving the grade of "Very Competent". During her studies, Laura was awarded the Lord Haldane scholarship for graduates with outstanding ability and the prestigious Lord Denning Major scholarship from Lincoln's Inn.

EXPERTISE