EXPERTISE

Family - Children

Lucy practises in all areas of family law, with a particular interest in public law, representing local authorities, parents, children, grandparents and intervening parties at all stages of proceedings. She has experience with cases involving serious non-accidental injuries, complex medical evidence, sexual abuse, severe neglect, domestic violence, learning difficulties and substance misuse.

Lucy has experience in private law proceedings including cases involving serious findings of fact, implacable hostility and international relocation cases and jurisdictional issues.

Lucy believes in a pragmatic approach grounded in legal principle and responsive to the client's individual needs.

Family - Finance

Lucy also has a strong matrimonial finance practice, including advising on settlement terms, cases involving complex pension valuation, and variation and enforcement of financial orders. Lucy also has experience dealing with unmarried former co-habitants under TOLATA 1996 and financial proceedings under Schedule One of the Children Act 1989.
